ABOUT THE OFFICERS

Honorary President - Otto W. Hedges.
A.B., Ohio Wesleyan University; A.M., Harvard University; LL.B. and J.D., Detroit College of Law. Member of Ohio and Michigan Bars. Began teaching career in 1907. Practiced law 1921-47. Author of Constitutional and Statutory Limitations on Real Property Taxation (1940) and other publications. Professor of Business Law, University of Detroit, since 1924.

President - Wesley C. Harter.
A.B., Carthage College; A.M., University of Illinois; I.D., University of Iowa. Taught English and social sciences for six years before undertaking legal studies in 1930. Practiced law in Illinois, 1933-1948. Professor of Business Law at Florida State University since 1948. Instrumental in promoting regional business law associations. First president of Southern Regional Business Law Association. Vice-president of American Business Law Association, 1955-56.

Vice-President - Cornelius W. Gillam.
B.A. magna cum laude, Carleton College (completed 4-year course in 2 years at age 18); M.A., University of Minnesota; J.D. and Ph.D., University of Chicago. Member of Phi Beta Kappa, Beta Gamma Sigma, Delta Sigma Rho and Delta Chi. Member of Illinois and Minnesota Bars. Past Secretary-Treasurer, American Business Law Association. Co-author with William H. Spencer of A Textbook of Law and Business and A Casebook of Law and Business, among many publications. Co-editor of American Business Law Association Bulletin. Associate Professor of Business Law, University of Washington.

Secretary-Treasurer - Robert E. Kendrick.
B.S., Austin Peay State College, Tennessee; LL.B., Vanderbilt University. Editorial Board, Vanderbilt Law Review. Member of Tennessee and Federal Bars. Practiced law in Tennessee, 1950-54. Contributor to Vanderbilt Law Review. Vice-President, Southeastern Regional Business Law Association. Assistant Professor of Business Administration and Political Science, David Lipscomb College, and Visiting Assistant Professor of Business Administration, Vanderbilt University.