

MBA Fellowship Program

Students from the following institutions can apply:

- Columbia University
- Cornell University
  - Johnson School of Business
- Harvard University
- New York University — Stern
- University of Chicago
  - Graduate School of Business
- University of Michigan
  - Ross Business School
- University of Pennsylvania
  - Wharton Business School

Credit Suisse is excited to offer an opportunity for a one-year, full-tuition fellowship and summer internship, along with a possible second-year fellowship, to outstanding MBA students from traditionally underrepresented backgrounds (African American, Hispanic/Latino and/or Native American) currently admitted and pending matriculation to any of the business schools listed on the left.

In conjunction with the one-year tuition payment, those awarded the Credit Suisse Fellowship will be expected to participate in Credit Suisse's 2009 Summer Associate program.

Eligibility Criteria

Eligible candidates must have been admitted to a full-time MBA program at one of the eligible institutions in the Fall of 2008. They must also demonstrate a strong interest in pursuing a career in the investment banking industry. Criteria for selection will also include:

- Academic achievement
- Initiative
- Professional development
- Teamwork
- Leadership

For additional information on the Fellowship Program, please email Martene Sinclair at diversity.recruiting@credit-suisse.com.