Comments in Course Evaluations from 2015 Carson Scholars

All of the speakers were impressive and interesting. I will always remember how unbelievable Capitol Hill was.

I loved the speaker series. It was great to open my eyes to something I would have never thought would be so integral to business.

Incredible course! Wonderful speakers who were influential and experts in their fields. Loved each speaker and really developed a stronger interest in public policy.

It was so much fun to learn about public policy in the heart of DC. The speakers were very candid about their experiences, knowledgeable in their subject matter, open to questions, and generally good networking contacts for business students interested in policy and government affairs.

The Carson Scholar program was excellent and the speakers were engaging, knowledgeable, and fun to listen to.

The course was filled with great speakers and gave insights into government and public policy.

The lectures and interactive nature of this course made it exciting to learn and provided valuable information to students that greatly encouraged learning and engagement. Physically being in Washington, D.C. made the course extremely exciting and created an environment to facilitate true learning.

Awesome course.

Great course and incredible experience. Will be greatly beneficial down the road in not only my career but basic understanding of how our country operates.

I loved this class. It helped me grow and learn in so many ways. I made valuable connections with influential leaders.

Loved how engaging the speakers were. Everything was directly tied to our business studies and the intersection was definitely evident.

One of my favorite courses taken at Ross.

This is one of the best courses I have taken at the University of Michigan. The material was incredibly relevant and interesting, and the speakers were impressive.

The opportunity to spend the week in D.C. learning from a wide range of brilliant minds with different views was a once in a lifetime opportunity.

In addition to the great curriculum and field trips, I remember this one week in DC fondly also because of the friendships and connections I made with peers outside of my class section.

The Carson Scholar program was an invaluable experience of my time at Ross.

Thank you for the unforgettable opportunity to learn from and connect with some of the great minds in business and politics as a group in Washington D.C. My favorite week of school.

The Carson Scholars program was absolutely one of the highlights from my time at Ross and one of the most useful classes I took. To this day, I still think back and share learnings that I gained that week.

Carson Scholars was one of the highlights of my time at Ross. It was a week packed with enthusiasm, excitement, and exploring.

Thank you for an unforgettable and very valuable experience at The Washington Campus! Just this week, while working with a client and talking about the role of lobbying, I referred to my learnings from the Carson Scholars Program. Thank you so much!

Carson Scholars was a fantastic program and one of my favorite things I did in undergrad.

Carson Scholars was easily one of my favorite classes in college. I recall wonderful memories with classmates and enjoyed listening to the interesting speakers.

Participating in the Carson Scholars program was one of my greatest experiences as a Ross BBA.

Even two years after Carson Scholars, the knowledge and insights I gained from my experience throughout the program still stands at the forefront of my mind.

I apply the collaborative approach to business and what I learned as a Carson Scholar every day in my career in sustainability consulting. I am very grateful to have attended sessions with world renowned speakers.
