

Christopher R. Mueller

607 Ross St. • Ann Arbor, MI 48103
crmuelle@umich.edu • (734) 649-1701

---

EDUCATION 2008 – 2011	UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN Master of Business Administration (Stephen M. Ross School of Business) Master of Public Policy (Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy)	Ann Arbor, MI
1996 – 2000	LIBERTY UNIVERSITY Bachelor of Arts in Religion ( Summa cum laude )	Lynchburg, VA
EXPERIENCE 2015 – Present	ROSS SCHOOL OF BUSINESS – UNIV. OF MICHIGAN Lecturer <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Co-created and teach course on Business Leadership to Sophomores that frames students' understanding of the social impact of business</li><li>• Adapted and coordinated Ross' hallmark Multidisciplinary Action-Learning Project (MAP) for the undergraduate BBA program, allowing 122 students to participate in 24 client projects; Coordinated three instructors and advised nine student teams</li></ul>	Ann Arbor, MI
2014 – Present	SECOND STORY HOMES Founder/ CEO/ Social Entrepreneur Building a social enterprise with a vision to use the popular experience of remodeling older homes as a metaphor to inspire personal and community reinvention. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Raised two rounds of private funding totaling $600,000</li><li>• Expanding from Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti, MI to Detroit, MI in Summer 2017</li></ul>	Ann Arbor, MI
2011 – Present	INNOVATRIUM Principal Lead a portfolio of consulting engagements designed to cultivate a culture of intraprenurship within established incumbent organizations. Responsibilities included managing the client relationship and delivering services through a team of consultants and contractors. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Designed and implemented an internal venture capital program for Robert Bosch, LLC that creates a safe space for associates to develop new business ideas into investible business opportunities that are pitched to executive leadership. Contract has been renewed for a third year with a focus to scaling the program globally</li><li>• Launched a Social Innovation consulting practice by adapting the Innovatrium's core practices from the corporate to the social and public sectors</li><li>• Sold and managed a diverse client portfolio, including: Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Consumer's Energy, Denso, Excellent Schools Detroit, Michigan Economic Development Corporation, Minneapolis Institute of Art, Prudential, and the W.K. Kellogg Foundation</li><li>• Presented keynote at national conferences, including Association of Art Museum Directors, League of American Orchestras, and National Council of Cities</li></ul>	Ann Arbor, MI
2004 – 2008	GENERATION SOLUTIONS Chief Operating Officer/ Regional Director Responsible for strategic and operational oversight of a five million dollar Home Health Care company with multiple locations <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Grew profitability 190% in two years</li><li>• Oversaw merger and operational integration with acquired company</li><li>• Supervised six direct reports including four department heads</li><li>• Trained Regional Directors and key management positions</li><li>• Designed corporate measures for marketing, finance, and human resources</li></ul>	Lynchburg, VA
2001 – 2004	LYNCHBURG CITY SCHOOLS Middle and High School Teacher	Lynchburg, VA