PROFESSIONAL LEADERSHIP

Leading Michigan Ross' Largest Degree Program Serving as the Associate Dean for Undergraduate Programs for over 2,400 BBAs and 560 Business Minors with nearly 30 staff members and a large budget. Managing the transition to a four-year program and improvements to the Signature Learning Experiences, including a new senior transition to work requirement, at a time when over half of Ross undergraduates studied abroad. Leading the program teams that designed and launched the successful Ross Summer Business Academy pipeline program, the Living Business residential theme community, the first Ross Maymester, and a range of new student programming.

Program & Admissions Success Overseeing record applications submitted to the Ross school BBA Program and rankings increases to highs of #3 for undergraduate business programs (U.S. News) and #2 Best Undergraduate Business Schools (Poets & Quants).

Diversity, Equity, Inclusion & Belonging Commitment Spearheading the Identity, Diversity & Organization Milestone Task Force to expand content and integration of DEI curriculum and student support, including increasing coverage in the Signature Learning Experience courses for first-year and sophomore transfer students. Championing the interests of student affinity groups and supporting students and staff during crisis moments.

Alumni and Donor Relationship Building Extensive work with key donors to fund undergraduate education innovations and student support. Leading the undergraduate committee of the Ross School Advisory Board and working with Ross Development and Alumni Relations on donor initiatives and scholars' programs.

Forward Looking and Collaborative Leadership Representing the Ross School on University of Michigan-wide committees and task forces related to summer programs, post-COVID grading, mental health, and technology issues. Completed the Big Ten Academic Leadership Program (2020-21) and leading the Ross team hosting the 2023 National Undergraduate Business Symposium.
