University of Michigan

The Office of Tax Policy Research, established in 1987, promotes policy-oriented research in taxation, and serves as a liaison between the academic, business, and policy making communities. We are committed to using state-of-the-art methods to analyze tax policy issues, and to disseminate our findings, and those of a broader academic community, to people in the policy making community.

Bibliography on Tax Compliance and Tax Law Enforcement

This bibliography was compiled in conjunction with the Conference on Tax Compliance and Tax Law Enforcement, sponsored by the Office of Tax Policy Research and held in Ann Arbor, Michigan on December 7 and 8, 1990.

It is intended to include the principal works in English on tax compliance and tax law enforcement and a few seminal works in related fields. It draws heavily on the excellent bibliographies included in Cheating the Government: The Economics of Evasion by Frank Cowell and in Taxpayer Compliance: An Agenda for Research, edited by Jeffrey A. Roth, John T. Scholz and Ann Dryden Witte.
